Covering the Spartans

Credential Requests

All requests for media credentials must be placed with Jamie Baldwin in the MSU Athletic Communications Office at least 48 hours in advance of the game. Upon acceptance of application, appropriate credentials are held for pickup at the media will-call table at the media entrance at Jenison Field House.

Press Conferences and Media Availability

During the season, head coach Cathy George will be available each Tuesday at MSU's weekly press conference, held at the Spartan Club presented by Huntington Bank on the fourth floor of the Spartan Stadium tower. The Tuesday press conference begins at 11:30 a.m.

All interviews should be arranged through the Jamie Baldwin in the Athletic Communications Office, and player requests must be made 24 hours in advance of the interview. Baldwin can be reached via email (jweir@ath.msu.edu); office phone (517.355.2271) or cell phone (517.243.3187). Please note that contact information for student-athletes WILL NOT be made available to reporters, per Department of Athletics policy.

MSU student-athletes are available for interviews immediately before practice. In addition to press conferences, head coach Cathy George is also available prior to practice, or for telephone interviews during the week on non-game days.

Post-match Interviews

Post-match interviews will take place on the Jenison Field House court following a brief 15-minute cooling-off period after the match's completion. MSU head coach Cathy George and selected student-athletes will be available upon request. Interviews with the visiting coach and players should be arranged with the opposing team's media relations contact.

Game Day Services

Game notes, rosters, statistics, media guides and final match statistics will be provided at each home match. Match statistics will be made available to the media following each set and complete stat packets will be made available upon the conclusion of the match. Each will be available on media row, located on the south end of Jenison Field House in the second deck.

Radio Broadcasts

Opponent radio stations wishing to broadcast from Jenison Field House must make arrangements through both the visiting team's SID and Jamie Baldwin no less than one week prior to the game. Space is available for one station per school to broadcast each game. Michigan State will carry a live radio broadcast of Big Ten Conference games not carried by a national television outlet or the Big Ten Digital Network (BTDN) on Spartan All-Access; the broadcast can be found on MSU's official website, www.MSUSpartans.com.

Television

Several Michigan State volleyball games will appear on television again this year. MSU will be featured several times on the Big Ten Network and ESPN2. Spartan games will also frequently be streamed live on Big Ten Digital Network (BTDN) on Spartan All-Access. Up-to-date listings for game coverage can be found on MSU's official website, www.msuspartans.com.

Photographers

All photographers are required to check in on press row to discuss position assignments no later 30 minutes prior to the start of the match.

Big Ten Network

Headquartered in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences.

The network is available to an estimated 75 million households, through agreements with more than 300 cable, satellite and telco affiliates in all 50 states and Canada. The Big Ten Network is a joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks.

The Big Ten Network is on the air 24 hours per day, 365 days a year. BTN annually televises more than 350 live events and streams an additional 300+ events. Each year's schedule is comprised of approximately 35-40 football games, 105 regular season men's basketball games, Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament games, 55 women's basketball games, Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament games, hundreds of additional Olympic sports events and dozens of Big Ten championship events.

Above and beyond the network's 350 televised events, the network streamed more than 300 events across 15 sports in 2009-10 and that number is expected to grow in future years. These games are available live and on-demand on the Big Ten Network's website.

Lou Anna K. Simon, PhD

President, Michigan State University

Lou Anna K. Simon was appointed the 20th president of Michigan State University by the MSU Board of Trustees in January 2005. An MSU graduate, she began her career at Michigan State as the assistant director of the Office of Institutional Research (now Office of Planning and Budgets) after earning her Ph.D. in 1974. From there, she moved into a variety of administrative roles, including assistant provost for general academic administration, associate provost, and provost and vice president for academic affairs; she served as interim president in 2003.

As president, Simon has engaged Michigan State University in a strategic and transformative journey to adapt the principles of the land-grant tradition to twenty-first century challenges. She has expanded MSU's reach in the state and around the world by focusing the university's strengths on solutions that enhance and protect quality of life: clean and affordable energy, access to education, safe and plentiful food, and health care. She recently outlined these commitments and the philosophy driving them in her monograph Embracing the World Grant Ideal: Affirming the Morrill Act for a Twenty-first-century Global Society.

Simon's key initiatives, particularly in economic development and international engagement, reflect her commitment to applying knowledge to benefit society and further the global common good. Simon is a member of the Council on Competitiveness, a nonpartisan, nongovernmental organization working to ensure U.S. prosperity, and serves on the Blue Ribbon Panel on Global Engagement of the American Council on Education (ACE). She serves on the National Higher Education Security Advisory Board, a group of presidents and chancellors of several prominent U.S. universities that consults regularly with national agencies responsible for security, intelligence, and law enforcement, and has been named the board's next chairperson.

Simon's resolute commitment to advancing Michigan's economic future has been a hallmark of her presidency. She serves on the board of directors of Prima Civitas, mid-Michigan's economic development foundation; Business Leaders for Michigan; and the Detroit Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. In the area of international engagement, Simon is a member of the executive committee of the Partnership to Cut Hunger and Poverty in Africa.

Research at Michigan State University reflects Simon's commitment to advancing knowledge and improving quality of life in the world. Under her leadership, MSU has expanded its research in, among other areas, biofuels and green energy; medicine and medical technology; physics and rare isotopes; safe water; and agriculture to address world hunger. Through nearly $500 million annually in externally sponsored research, Simon is ensuring that Michigan State University makes a significant difference in the region, state, nation, and world.

Athletics Director Mark Hollis

"We gather and engage our community to teach, support and celebrate our student-athletes in their quest for excellence."

This is the vision Mark Hollis has for the Michigan State Athletics Department. A Michigan State graduate and veteran Spartan athletics administrator, Hollis assumed the role of MSU's 18th athletics director on Jan. 1, 2008, succeeding Ron Mason.

Hollis has more than 20 years of athletics administration experience, either at the school or conference level. His well-rounded background has led to his knowledge of all areas within an athletics department, including marketing, financial administration, television negotiations, fund-raising, game operations, facility management, personnel policy, corporate interaction, sports management and public relations.

A 1985 MSU graduate, Hollis returned to his alma mater in 1995. Since then, he has been a critical component of the athletic department executive management staff, helping guide the department through short- and long-range plans. In addition, Hollis is chair of the NCAA Division I Amateurism Cabinet, a member of the NCAA's Men's Basketball Issues Committee, and a member of the Division I Men's Basketball Committee.

Hollis is credited with developing some of college athletics' most innovative events. It was his vision that led to Michigan State playing North Carolina in November 2011 in the first basketball game to be played on the flight deck of an aircraft carrier. In 2003, Hollis was the architect of the "BasketBowl," which established a then-world record crowd of 78,129 who witnessed the Michigan State-Kentucky game at Detroit's Ford Field. The concept, which involves placing the court in the center of a football stadium, has been used at the last five NCAA Final Fours. In 2001, Hollis helped mastermind the Michigan State-Michigan outdoor hockey game that attracted a then-world record crowd of 74,554 in Spartan Stadium.

Hollis' leadership and innovation has not gone unnoticed, as he was named the 2012 Athletic Director of the Year by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal/Daily. Since his official appointment as athletics director began in 2008, the Spartans have won 19 Big Ten Championships (regular season and tournament), appeared in two Final Fours and five bowl games, and finished in the top 40 of the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup four times. In addition, during Hollis' tenure as an administrator at MSU, the Spartans have appeared in 16 consecutive men's basketball NCAA Tournaments – the longest current streak among Big Ten schools and the third longest in the nation – and six Final Fours.

Michigan State had another successful year in 2012-13, ranking 30th in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup Standings, the second-highest showing under Hollis and the sixth best in department history. In the fall, the football team appeared in a school-record sixth consecutive in a bowl game with a win over TCU in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, men's soccer won the Big Ten Tournament title, volleyball advanced to the Sweet 16, and the men's and women's cross country teams reached the NCAA Championships. Among the winter sports, the men's basketball team advanced to the Sweet 16 for the 11th time in the past 16 years, the women's basketball team earned an NCAA Tournament bid for the fifth-straight season, and two Spartans earned national runner-up honors at the NCAA Track and Field Indoor Championships. The achievements continued in the spring, as men's tennis received its first-ever bid for the NCAA Championships, women's golf qualified for the NCAA Championships for the ninth time in the past 14 years, and women's track and field placed 18th at the NCAA Championships.

During Hollis' tenure, Michigan State student-athletes have excelled not only in competition, but in the classroom as well. For five consecutive semesters, Spartan student-athletes have posted better than a 3.0 cumulative GPA. The department had a record-breaking number of student-athletes (57) receive a spring semester GPA of 4.0 in 2013, and 350 student-athletes posted a cumulative GPA above 3.0. Additionally, 238 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors throughout the 2012-13 academic year, including 64 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars (min. 3.7 GPA). In the spring of 2012, the athletics department compiled the highest grade-point average in program history with a 3.0644.

Spartan athletic facilities have been upgraded at an unprecedented rate the past decade, and will only continue to improve under Hollis. More than $34 million has been committed in the past two years to projects at Spartan Stadium. Prior to the 2012 season, $10 million scoreboards, totaling 13,300-square-feet, were installed in the north and south end zones, giving MSU one of the top video board systems in the nation. In June 2013, the Michigan State Board of Trustees approved a $24.5 million project to the north end of Spartan Stadium that will feature a two-story, 50,000-square-foot addition as well as an entrance plaza, renovated gates, and additional restrooms and concessions. The building will include new locker rooms for teams, coaches and officials, a media center, and a recruiting lounge for all varsity sports. The project is scheduled to be completed in July 2014.

The Spartans moved into one of the nation's finest football facilities in August 2008, as a $15 million expansion and renovation project for the Duffy Daugherty Football Building was completed. MSU alumni Robert and Julie Skandalaris of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., donated $5 million as the lead gift for the facility expansion and upgrade. The Skandalaris Football Center includes team, staff and position meeting rooms, coaches' offices and a hall of history. In addition, an expanded weight room was finished in September 2008 that increased the facility in size from 9,000 to 16,500-square feet.

Also in 2008, the men's and women's soccer programs opened DeMartin Stadium, a state-of-the-art 2,500-seat facility that enables MSU to host conference and national tournaments. The baseball program played its inaugural season in McLane Baseball Stadium in 2009 following a $4 million donation to the 2,500-seat ballpark by former Houston Astros owner Drayton McLane Jr. In 2011, with the help of a $1 million gift by alumnus Ambassador Peter F. Secchia – the largest cash (outright) gift received by an MSU women's intercollegiate sports program – Secchia Stadium, a 1,100-seat facility located at Old College Field, opened for the softball program.

On the playing field in 2011-12, MSU won three Big Ten Championships (women's cross country, men's basketball and women's golf) and the football team won the 2011 Big Ten Legends Division title and played in the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game. The Spartans finished ranked No. 10 in the final USA TODAY Coaches Poll after tying the school single-season record with 11 wins, including a dramatic 33-30 triple-overtime victory over Georgia in the 2012 Outback Bowl. The men's basketball team captured a share of the conference regular-season championship, won the 2012 Big Ten Tournament title, and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16. Overall, nine sports participated in their respective team NCAA Championships, while individuals competed in five more NCAA Championships. The Spartans finished 34th overall in the 2011-12 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings.

In 2010-11, Michigan State had a record-setting year, winning five Big Ten Championships – the most in department history. The football team won a school-record 11 games and claimed the program's seventh Big Ten Championship, the baseball team won its first Big Ten title since 1979, while the women's cross country, women's basketball and women's golf teams also won conference championships. In 2009-10, the men's basketball team advanced to the Final Four for the sixth time in the last 12 years and won its second-straight Big Ten regular-season title, and field hockey captured both the Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships.

One of Hollis' major goals upon becoming athletics director was accomplished in 2010 when he unveiled the new brand and identity program for the athletics department. All of Michigan State's uniforms now incorporate consistent use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals along with standardization for logos. The brand and identity program for Michigan State Athletics was a result of nearly a two-year collaborative effort between the athletics department and Nike that included input from university and athletic administration, coaches and student-athletes. Michigan State was also selected to participate in the 2011 Nike Football Pro Combat system of uniforms, which the Spartans wore during their victory over Michigan on Oct. 15.

In Hollis' first full season as athletics director in 2008-09, Michigan State enjoyed one of its most successful years of the decade with a 27th-place finish in the Directors' Cup, the best showing for the department since 2003 and the third highest in the department's history. Ten teams earned bids to their respective NCAA Championships, led by men's basketball, which reached the national title game against North Carolina while also winning the Big Ten regular-season championship.

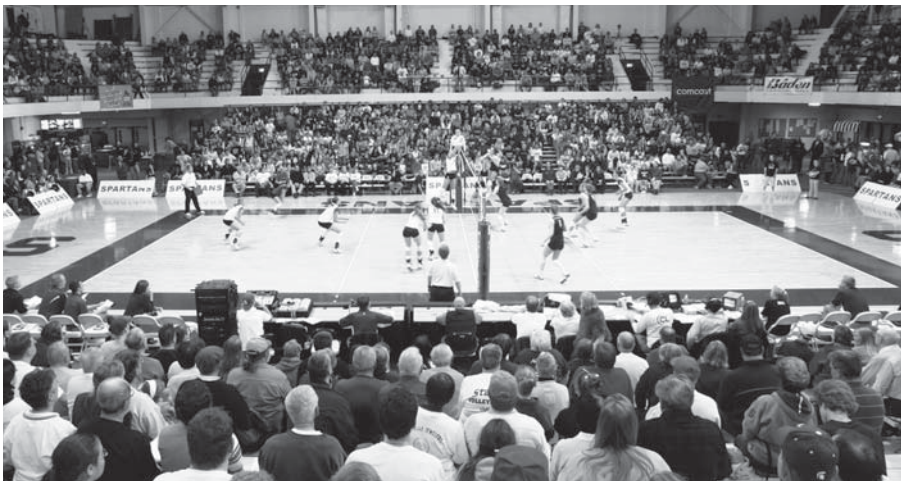
Hollis was named athletics director-designate on Sept. 12, 2007, and teamed with Mason in the transition throughout the fall of 2007. Prior to his official appointment as athletics director, Hollis played a lead role in two significant head coaching searches during the 2006-07 year. He spearheaded the effort to hire Mark Dantonio as football coach, which has resulted in a school-record six consecutive bowl appearances for the program and a Big Ten Championship in 2010. He also provided major assistance in the hiring of women's basketball coach Suzy Merchant in the spring of 2007, who led the Spartans to the Sweet 16 in 2009 and has brought MSU to five-straight NCAA Tournaments. Hollis' first hire as athletics director arrived on July 2, 2008, when he tabbed Jake Boss Jr. to direct the Spartan baseball program; in just three seasons, Boss won a Big Ten title in 2011, the first for the program in 32 years, then followed in 2012 by guiding MSU to the NCAA Tournament.

On Oct. 13, 2005, Michigan State University and WJR - 760 AM announced a five-year agreement to carry Spartan football and men's basketball games, along with coaches' radio shows. The successful partnership led to the announcement on Jan. 19, 2010, of a 10-year extension through 2020. Hollis played a leading role in finding MSU athletics a home on the 50,000-watt Detroit radio station, known as the "Great Voice of the Great Lakes." The agreement has benefited more than just athletics as WJR regularly promotes the academic accomplishments of the university in addition to broadcasting sporting events.

Prior to returning to Michigan State, Hollis spent two years at the University of Pittsburgh as assistant and associate athletic director. Before his stint at Pitt, Hollis worked for the Western Athletic Conference. He joined the WAC as an administrative assistant immediately after college. Two years later, he was appointed assistant to the commissioner and soon thereafter was promoted to assistant commissioner.

Hollis earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communication from Michigan State in 1985, where he served as a basketball team manager under Jud Heathcote. In 1992, he earned his MBA in business administration from the University of Colorado.

He and his wife Nancy, have a daughter, Katy, and two sons, T.R. and Michael.



The Michigan State volleyball team has played nearly all of its home matches in historic Jenison Field House since 1993. Built in 1940, Jenison was the home of Spartan basketball until 1989 and is where Magic Johnson helped lead Michigan State to its first NCAA Championship in 1979.

Jenison, which is currently the home to the main Spartan athletic department administrative offices as well as MSU volleyball, women's gymnastics, wrestling and men's and women's track & field, underwent extensive renovations in 2001. The volleyball facilities were improved to include a large new locker room, an expanded training room, a larger weight room and an improved equipment room. The building also houses locker rooms for baseball, women's crew, field hockey, soccer and softball.

For volleyball, the court runs north and south to accommodate 5,017 fans. Beginning with the 2006 season, seating is available on all four sides of the court, including a special section of courtside seating.

Prior to the start of the 2011 season, MSU renovated Jenison Field House by installing retractable bleachers around the entire floor, featuring chair-back seating on the east and west ends. Jenison also received a new paint job and new banners in the rafters with new lights. Also, a state-of-the-art video board was installed on the north end of the building, allowing for instant highlights and pre-match announcements for all Jenison events. In addition, the sound system in Jenison received updated equipment to better serve the teams which compete in the facility.

MSU has hosted NCAA Tournament games in 1995, 1996, 1998 and 2003. Jenison Field House features a wooden playing surface that saw its first action during the 2005 season. Fans attending Spartan volleyball matches are treated to a truly spectacular event. Fans can also get into the action with "Ace" and "Roof" cards that are distributed at the door.

The Spartan Side Out Club, the official booster club of Spartan volleyball runs apparel sales at each home game to help raise funds for the MSU volleyball program. Side Out Club members line the court on match day and provide support for the Spartans at Jenison.

This year, the Spartans will host 15 home games, which will include the Auto-Owners Insurance Spartan Invitational. Michigan State will welcome Eastern Michigan, Duquesne, and Cincinnati to East Lansing for that tournament Sept. 20-21.

SPARTAN COACHING STAFF

Cathy George

Head Coach • Ninth Season

Before arriving at Michigan State, Cathy George had already established herself as one of the more well-respected coaches in the nation. George has helped Michigan State return among the elite programs in the Big Ten Conference in her ninth season as head coach. George ranks 29th among active coaches for total wins in NCAA Division I volleyball with 511 victories. In addition, George ranks among the top 80 coaches all-time with a career .603 winning percentage. Every year, George has had her teams in the top-25 in annual attendance among all NCAA Division I teams, including a high of eighth in 2008 when the Spartans welcomed 36,419 total fans. George currently boasts a career record of 511-337, and is 146-113 while at MSU.

George has continued the tradition of excellence in the classroom at Michigan State as she has boasted 40 Academic All-Big Ten selections and seven Big Ten Distinguished Scholars during her time.

In 2012, the Spartans reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season and advanced to the Regional Semifinals for the second time in five years. MSU opened the tournament with a 3-2 win over No. 18 San Diego and then upset defending national champion UCLA on its home floor, 3-1, in-route to the Sweet 16. The Spartans opened the season on a 12-match win streak that included four tournament titles: The Spartan Showcase, UConn Classic, Spartan Invitational and Charleston Invitational. George won her 500th match at Iowa and the Spartans swept Michigan on its home floor. In November, Michigan State won six consecutive Big Ten matches, the best streak in program history since 1998. During that stretch, the Spartans upset No. 4 Nebraska 3-2, defeating a top-5 opponent for the first time since 1996. MSU followed that with a 3-1 win at No. 10 Minnesota, winning back-to-back matches over top-10 teams for the first time since 1995. Kori Moster, earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and was also named All-Big Ten Honorable Mention. Junior outside hitter Lauren Wicinski was named to the 16-member All-Big Ten team and Halle Peterson was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team. It was also the first time since 1995 that two Spartans were named AVCA All-Americans in the same season. Wicinski received second-team honors and Moster earned honorable mention accolades. Wicinski ranked fourth in the NCAA in service aces per set with 0.63 and was seventh in the country in points per set with 5.33. Her mark of 4.43 kills per set also ranked 16th in the NCAA. Wicinski broke the single-season record for service aces at MSU with 81, breaking the previous record of 75 that had stood since 1983. Moster has already surpassed 1,000 career digs at MSU in just two seasons. Her mark of 602 in 2012 places her second all-time in a single season at Michigan State.

The Spartans made their way back to the NCAA Tournament in 2011, the ninth trip for George and her fourth at the helm of MSU. Michigan State started the season with six straight wins and two tournament titles, winning the UCF Classic and the Spartan Showcase. MSU closed out the non-conference schedule by winning the Spartan Invitational and started off

11-1 before the beginning of conference play. The Michigan State seniors stole the show on Nov. 18, 2011 and propelled the Spartans to a 3-1 win against then-No. 7 Illinois. One of the largest crowds of the season at Jenison Field House witnessed one of the most thrilling matches of the season. Red-shirt sophomore Alexis Mathews, along with seniors Kyndra Abron, Jenilee Rathje and Becca Zlabis each tallied double-digit kills against the Fighting Illini. Rathje, one of the most decorated players in program history, was recognized as a third-team AVCA All-American and was a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten First Team for the second straight season. Rathje finished her career first in sets played with 496 and second in matches with 142. She also ended her career seventh in block assists with 333 and eighth in kills with 1,504. Fellow senior Kyndra Abron was also named to the All-Big Ten team as an honorable mention and was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team. Abron was joined on the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team by red-shirt sophomore Alexis Mathews.

The 2010 season once again saw the Green and White face one of the toughest schedules in the nation, as it played two of the 2009 NCAA semi-final teams over the course of the season. MSU opened up the year with its then seventh-straight MSU Showcase title before taking on the rigorous conference slate. The Spartans closed out the 2010 campaign by winning four of their last six matches, highlighted by an impressive 3-0 win over then-No. 19 Michigan on Senior Night, at the Breslin Center, before a record-setting crowd of 6,824. As a result of the 3-0 win, MSU regained the "State Pride Flag" for the first time since 2006, also the last time the Spartans topped U-M in straight sets. Red-shirt junior Jenilee Rathje became the 17th all-time in program history to amass 1,000-career kills as she tallied eight against Northwestern to wrap-up the year. Rathje earned unanimous first team All-Big Ten honors as well as being named an AVCA All-Mideast Region honorable mention selection. Also, junior Kyndra Abron was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team while red-shirt freshman Alexis Mathews was an honorable mention selection.

In 2009, the Spartans once again earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. MSU opened the campaign by winning its first 12 matches of the season, the third-best start to a year all-time and the best since the 1976 season. Along the way to the third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four seasons, the Green and White posted upset wins over then-No. 12 Southern California in the opening match of the year, as well as then-No. 12 Illinois in the Big Ten home opener. Sophomore Kyndra Abron became the first sophomore in program history to be named an AVCA All-America, earning an honorable mention selection. Abron also was just the third Spartan to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore; the others were Val Sterk (1994) and Jenna Wrobel (1996).

After losing 64-percent of the total offense from 2007, George was able to bring in the No. 7 recruiting class in - the best in MSU history - to help shoulder some of the burden and void left by the graduating class. That recruiting class helped George compile a 15-16 overall record in 2008, despite playing five freshmen at a time for most of the season. It was clear that although the record did not reflect it, George may have had one of her finest years as a collegiate coach in 2008.

George spent the spring of 2008 coaching the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship. The USA A2 Red Team topped the University of Washington's Huskies VBC team, 3-1, in Atlanta. George and University of Texas head coach Jerritt Elliott, the A2 Blue coach, conducted training of 20 selected collegiate student-athletes before the championships and split the student-athletes into two teams for competition. George's A2 Red Team took home the gold, while the Blue team finished with the bronze. This was George's second stint with USA Volleyball as she was an assistant coach for the US team at the 1999 World University Games.

George had arguably her best season at MSU in 2007, guiding the Spartans to the NCAA Regional Semifinals and a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten. Overall, MSU went 21-14. The 2007 Spartans entered postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2002 and 2003. Under George's guidance, senior Ashley Schatzle became the Spartans' seventh AVCA All-American as she led the team that season with 553 kills.

George guided MSU to the 2006 NCAA Tournament in just her second year at the helm of the Spartan program. George led a rebuilding Spartan squad to a 19-12 overall record, including a 10-10 mark in Big Ten play. The Green and White made its first trip to postseason play since the 2003 campaign.

In George's first year as head coach, the Spartans finished the season with a 12-18 record, going 5-15 in conference action. George also saw three Big Ten Player of the Week honorees and two Third-Team 2006 ESPN Magazine Academic All-America Volleyball District IV Team members in 2005. Under George, heavy hitter Katie Johnson earned All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, fellow outside hitter Ashley Schatzle was named to the 2006 First Team All-Big Ten Team, and freshman middle blocker Vanessa King garnered 2006 All-Big Ten Freshman Team accolades. In addition, Johnson competed with the U.S. Women's National Volleyball A2 Program during the summer of 2007.

George was hired as the fifth coach in the history of Michigan State volleyball in December of 2004. George has earned conference coach of the year honors in every league in which she has coached before joining the MSU staff and the Big Ten Conference.

Prior to her hiring at Michigan State, George spent 11 years guiding the Western Michigan University program, where she compiled a 185-139 record. Taking over the reins at WMU prior to the 1994 season, George's Broncos qualified for eight NCAA Tournament appearances under her direction. George reached eight consecutive MAC Tournaments beginning with the 1997 campaign, and her Bronco squad made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, capturing the title in 2000.

George's student-athletes at WMU earned all-conference and national honors while enjoying academic success as well. George reached the 300-win mark in 2000, and was named the MAC Coach of the Year that same season after guiding the Broncos to the MAC title. She has also gained international experience as an assistant coach for the 1999 U.S. Team in the World University Games, held in Mallorca, Spain.

Sixteen players earned academic all-conference honors during her time at Western Michigan, while four players were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. Her teams posted grade-point averages of 3.00, or better, and boasted a 100-percent graduation rate in 10 of her 11 seasons.

On the court, George recruited high-caliber student-athletes, as three WMU players trained with various U.S. national teams. In 1999, two players were honored with the chance to compete with the Pan Am Games Training Team, while another Bronco was selected to the 2001 U.S. National A2 team. Western Michigan's success under George led to increased attendance, as the Broncos led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons. She also worked to reinstate the Bronco Spikers' Club, which takes part in activities involving the team throughout the year, including pre-match chalk talks, tailgates and post-match wrap-ups.

Prior to her arrival at Western Michigan, George was the head coach at Texas-Arlington from 1989-1993. She led UTA to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Tournaments, with a school-record third-place national finish in 1989.

While at Texas-Arlington, George became the first woman to coach in the NCAA Division I Final Four (1989) and she earned Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors three times (1989, 1990, `92) as she posted a record of 93-74 in her five seasons. George's teams won Southland Conference titles in 1989, 1990 and 1992, were 37-4 in conference play (.902) and finished with a 10-2 record in postseason competition during her tenure.

George got her start as a collegiate coach at North Dakota State in 1987-88, leading the Bison to an 87-11 (.888) record in her first two seasons. In 1987, NDSU posted a 44-8 mark en route to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Division II Championships in her first season as a head coach. She was named North Central Conference and regional coach of the year in both 1987 and 1988 and earned NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year honors in 1988. Also in 1988, George led the Bison to a 43-3 mark and a third-place national finish.

A 1985 graduate of Illinois State, George helped the Redbirds win three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. A team captain and crafty outside attacker, she was a three-time All-MVC selection and earned all-region honors.

George, who earned her master's degree in education from Central Michigan in 1987, and her husband Jerry reside in Okemos, Mich., with their two sons, T.J., 20, and Conner, 15. T.J. is a junior pitcher on the baseball team at Concordia University.

Russ Carney

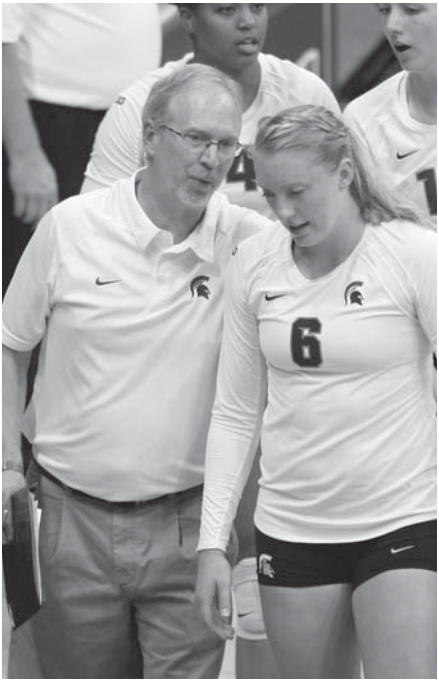
Associate Head Coach · Ninth Season

Russ Carney is in his ninth season at Michigan State following 11 years at Western Michigan, where he served as an assistant under head coach Cathy George. Carney was promoted to Associate Head Coach on June 19, 2008.

Carney focuses on recruiting, as well as working with the servers on the court for the Spartans. Last season, the Spartans made it back to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time during his tenure at MSU.

"Russ and I have worked so well together and had great success throughout the past 19 years," said George. "He and I worked together for 11 years at Western Michigan and I really feel that having that kind of continuity is a strength for the Spartan program. I believe we complement each other very well in our coaching styles. We are able to maximize different areas on the bench and in practice."

In recent seasons, Carney has assisted in the growth of Alexis Mathews, who was third in the Big Ten and 16th nationally in hitting percentage (.388) and fourth in the Conference in blocks (158, 1.22 per set). Her career mark of 1.25 blocks per set is currently third all-time in the MSU annals, while her 440 career blocks ranks fifth.



In 2010, then-freshman Mathews broke on to the scene for the Green and White as she led all Spartans with 127 blocks on the year, the fourth-best mark recorded by a freshman in school history, for a 1.27 blocks per set average, the third most in program history by a freshman. Mathews closed out MSU's home schedule with 12 blocks against Michigan, the most blocks ever recorded in a three-set match at MSU and the fourth most in all matches. As a result of her stellar season, Mathews was selected to represent USA at the USA Volleyball Open National Championships as a part of the U.S. National A2 Team.

Under the guidance of Carney in 2009, Kyndra Abron became the first sophomore in program history to be tabbed as an American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-American. Abron also earned All-Mideast Region honorable mention as well as first-team All-Big Ten honors. Also, former Spartan Vanessa King is a student-athlete who thrived under the tutelage of Carney. King ended her career ranked as one of the most efficient hitters in school history and was arguably one of the best middle blockers in the Big Ten in 2008. In fact, Carney was a prime reason that King was selected to the All-Big Ten First Team in 2008 and to the All-Big Ten Freshman team in 2006.

Over the last several seasons, Carney has played an instrumental role in assembling some of the top recruiting classes in Michigan State history. Most recently, MSU's incoming 2013 class has been ranked the seventh-best in the nation by PrepVolleyball.com; MSU's 2007 class was also the No. 7 class in the country and the top-rated class in the Big Ten that season. In addition, Carney serves as the as the academic coordinator on the coaching staff.

A Tunkhannock, Pa., native, Carney started his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek, Mich., in 1978. He assumed the head coaching duties at KCC in 1980 and promptly guided the Bruins to the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship that year.

Carney went on to serve as an assistant coach at Wisconsin in 1981 before he was named head coach of the Badgers in 1982, where he remained until 1984. During his stint at Wisconsin, Carney served as head coach of the 1981 U.S. Olympic Festival Men's East Team, guiding that squad to the Gold medal. He was a member of both the NCAA Midwest Regional and Big Ten Conference officiating committees.

A setter in college, Carney attended Kellogg Community College (1973-74) before transferring to Ball State University (1976). He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from BSU in 1978.

Russ and his wife Sherry have a daughter, Jessica, 24, and a son, Branden, 21. The family resides in Battle Creek, Mich.

Mike Gawlik

Assistant Coach • Eighth Season

Mike Gawlik begins his eighth season as an assistant coach and his ninth overall with the Spartan volleyball program. A four-year letterwinner and two-year captain at the University of the Pacific, Gawlik brings several years of competitive coaching experience to George's staff.

In addition to his duties with the Spartans, Gawlik accepted an invitation to coach with the USA Senior Women's A2 this past summer. Gawlik had an opportunity to work with some of the top talent in the United States, which included Spartans Lauren Wicinski, Kori Moster, and Alexis Mathews.

In February of 2010, Gawlik was named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) "Thirty Under 30" list. The award honors 30 up-and-coming volleyball coaches each year, who are under the age of 30, for their hard work and dedication to the sport of volleyball.

Gawlik currently serves as the liaison between the AVCA and the assistant coaches throughout the Big Ten Conference.

Gawlik's primary responsibility on the MSU staff is the mentoring of the defensive specialists. As a back-court standout at his alma mater, Pacific, Gawlik has brought his experience and tenacity to Michigan State, both of which have seemed to rub off on the Spartans on the competition floor. He also assists with the blockers on the team and specializes as a defensive coordinator for the Spartan coaching staff.

Under Gawlik's tutelage, Kori Moster earned the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2012, as she compiled 587 digs, second-best in a single season all-time at MSU. Moster was also an Honorable Mention All-America selection.

In 2011, Gawlik helped the Spartans make it back to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time during his career at MSU. He also assisted in the emergence of then-freshman Moster as a defensive specialist and libero.

Gawlik has impacted many players and has been a primary reason for the Spartans' play on the back line, including that of libero Allyson Karaba (2007-10). After seeing scarce playing time during her freshman year as a walk-on, Gawlik helped the sophomore tally 518 digs on the season, second-most in a single season in school history. She also ranked third in single-season school history with 4.39 digs per set, and she did so with scoring being reduced from 30 points to 25 points per set. Karaba ended her career trailing only Nicole Colaluca on both lists, an athlete that Gawlik has also mentored in his time at MSU.

Gawlik is also very hands-on with each of the student-athletes, competing at practices and using his competitiveness to rally the team. Gawlik often times will train just as hard in practice as the current Spartans, showing a commitment to excellence and a passion for the game. Gawlik will also deal with compiling video and scouting other teams. He also takes time to e-mail and compile a volleyball newsletter each month, so MSU volleyball fans, alumni and parents can follow their Spartans on a regular basis.

"With the addition of Mike to our staff we really feel we can take our program to the next level," George said at the time of his hiring. "Mike has been involved with a wide range of coaching responsibilities during his career, and brings a bright and energetic presence to the bench. He has been very involved with our program's goals and expectations throughout his time at MSU, and I am excited to have such a high-caliber individual on our staff."

Prior to his current capacity at MSU, Gawlik served as a volunteer assistant where he contributed to practice planning, scouting of opponents, and the development of player skills and game preparation. He also plays a significant role as a member of the MSU summer camp staff, assisting with session planning and budget assessment.

Gawlik has coached at collegiate-level volleyball camps, including Michigan State and Nebraska. He also served as a head coach for the Sports Performance Volleyball Club Summer Camp from 2000-04. A four-year starter at the setter and libero positions for the University of Pacific, Gawlik was a 2003 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation All-Conference selection, was named a Strength and Conditioning All-American (2005), and earned the Student of the Year Award (2005) for sports science majors. He holds two school records, including career games played (382) and career digs (849).

Gawlik, who earned a Master's degree in athletic administration from MSU in 2011, resides in East Lansing with his wife, Katie.

Krista Rice

Volunteer Assistant Coach • Second Season

Krista Rice begins her second season as Volunteer Assistant Coach. Rice brings with her a strong playing background at Kent State as well as valuable coaching experience at Davenport University. She is able to combine her strong work ethic and extensive knowledge of the sport on the sidelines.

The former Krista Groce served as an assistant coach at Davenport University for two years, (2010-12), and also served as the head coach of the Far Out Volleyball Club from 2009-12. During her time as head coach, she also served as a lead coach, mentoring other coaches in the club and assisting with practices and strategies.

Rice was also a junior varsity assistant coach at East Kentwood High School, her alma mater, in 2009. Before that, she was the head coach of Renaissance Cleveland 12's Regional Team.

Rice graduated from Kent State with a degree in exercise physiology and had a successful playing career from 2005-08. During her senior season, Rice led her team in blocks and was the Strength and Conditioning Volleyball Athlete of the Year.

Robby Smith

Director of Volleyball Operations • Second Season

Robby Smith begins his second season with the Michigan State volleyball program as the Director of Volleyball Operations. Smith brings with him an extensive knowledge of the sport and has held a variety of positions within the athletic department at MSU.

Before his current role, Smith was an intern in the ticket office in 2011-12 and served as the Michigan State Director of Softball Operations during the 2010-11 season.

Smith also worked in the equipment room as a student and was a MSU basketball student manager from 2007-10. During that span, the Spartans won two Big Ten Championships and competed in the Final Four twice. Before that, he was a student manager for the MSU women's basketball team.

Smith graduated from Michigan State with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, specializing in sport administration and is currently working towards a master's degree.

• MSU compiled a 25-10 overall record and went 11-9 in Big Ten play, good for sixth place in the Conference standings. MSU's 25 wins were the most since 1996, while the Spartans also posted their best Big Ten record since 2003.

• Michigan State made its 15th NCAA Tournament appearance and third in the last four seasons. MSU advanced to the regionals with wins over San Diego (3-2) and No. 7 UCLA (3-1) before falling to Big Ten rival Michigan (3-0). It was the sixth time in program history (and second under head coach Cathy George) that MSU has advanced to the Sweet 16.

• The Spartans were ranked No. 16 in the final AVCA coaches poll in 2012.

• MSU's attendance of 33,717 fans ranked 17th nationally.

• The Spartans won three matches against teams ranked in the top-10. By stringing together wins over then-No. 4 Nebraska and then-No.10 Minnesota, Michigan State notched its first back-to-back wins over top-10 teams since 1995. In the NCAA Tournament, the Spartans downed No. 7 UCLA, 3-1.

• The team boasted a 3.14 cumulative grade point average, with a combined seven 4.0 semesters in 2012-13. Amy Detlinger, Kristen Kelsay, Chelsey Probst, Stefanie Shiramizu, and Jazmine White earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, while Kelsay also earned Distinguished Scholar recognition for a 3.7 GPA or better in the 2012-13 school year.

• Michigan State retained the State Pride Flag for the third-straight season and the second consecutive year on total points. The Spartans edged Michigan, 139-133, with each team sweeping matches on the road. A record-setting crowd of 5,059 fans took in the match at Jenison Field House, the third-largest crowd in program history.

• Lauren Wicinski and Kori Moster earned AVCA All-America honors. Wicinski earned the distinction for the third time in her career by being named to the second team, while Moster was an Honorable Mention pick.

• Four individuals earned post-season honors from the Big Ten. Kori Moster earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors and was Honorable Mention All-Big Ten, while Lauren Wicinski was a unanimous choice on the All-Big Ten team. Halle Peterson was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team and Kristen Kelsay, a co-captain, was MSU's recipient of the Big Ten Sportsmanship award.

• Lauren Wicinski was named the Big Ten Player of the Week on Oct. 22. Kori Moster (Sept. 3) and Alexis Mathews (Sept. 17) were each named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week during the season as well.

• Kori Moster surpassed 1,000 career digs in the regular-season finale at Penn State. With 1,061 through two seasons, she needs 58 to move into the top-10 all-time at MSU.

• Lauren Wicinski set a school record for service aces in a season (81). She shattered Jane Zenner's previous record of 75, set in 1983.

• Head coach Cathy George became the 34th active coach to reach 500 career wins after MSU swept Iowa on Saturday, Sept. 29. George currently has a record of 511-338 in her 26 years of coaching (eight at MSU). George has also compiled wins at North Dakota State, Texas-Arlington, and Western Michigan.

• Alexis Mathews, Kori Moester, and Lauren Wicinski were selected to the US National A2 Team to compete in the USA Volleyball Open National Championships. Wicinski won gold at the event, and MIke Gawlik was an assistant coach.

2012 Big Ten in Review

The Big Ten Conference has perhaps become the preeminent Division I volleyball conference in the country, with its teams battling through a gauntlet of tough regular-season games and excelling on the national level. The Conference's level of success was unmatched in 2012, with two teams in the Division I Championship weekend and a total of seven teams in the NCAA Tournament field, three of which earned top-16 seeds. Big Ten teams compiled a 19-7 record in the 2012 Championship, tying the all-time win total for the conference set in 2010.

The Big Ten led the country with seven volleyball teams ranked in the final AVCA Division I Coaches Poll of the 2012 season, including four top-10 squads. After reaching the NCAA Championship semifinals, Penn State and Michigan closed the season ranked third and fifth, respectively. Joining the Wolverines and Nittany Lions in the top 10 were No. 7 Nebraska and No. 8 Minnesota. Purdue closed the season at No. 15, while Michigan State ranked 16th and Ohio State No. 22

Fourteen Big Ten players were selected as AVCA Division I All-Americans, (the most of any conference), while 10 were named All-Americans by Volleyball Magazine.

State Pride Series

Michigan State and Michigan share a long history of rivalries in both academics and athletics. Beginning in 1990, the two state of Michigan Big Ten Conference institutions began a "State Pride" season series to celebrate the in-state rivalry. Each University hosts a "State Pride Night" when the teams meet during the regular season. A state of Michigan flag bearing the motto "Tuebor" or "I will defend," serves as a symbol of the volleyball rivalry with the winner of the season's face-to-face matches retaining possession of the flag for a year. The flag flew over the State Capitol on Sept. 18, 1990.In addition to the State flag, each school's winning year is listed on its half of a special Michigan State-Michigan banner.

- The school that wins both matches will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If teams split the matches, the school that wins the greatest number of games will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If both teams have won the same number of games, the school with the most total points is the "State Pride" winner.
